 - b. Validation of Contributor's Client Suitability Assessment and Investment Policy Statement made by Contributor's Administrator referred to in PERA Rule 6.A.2.b (i) and (ii).
6. Schedule of commission charges and/or fees it will charge for its services; and
7. Such other requirements or qualifications as the Commission may be deemed necessary.

Section 6. Security for the Faithful Performance of Administrators

As a security for the faithful performance of its duties, an Administrator shall hold government securities, equivalent to one percent (1%) of the book value of the total volume of PERA assets administered or such other amount as the Commission may impose, earmarked in favor of the SEC; provided that the Administrator shall issue an authorization in favor of the Commission to withdraw, dispose, and disburse the proceeds thereof to settle any claims arising from the breach of its duties as evidenced by a final and executory court order; Provided, further, that the Administrator shall not withdraw, transfer or replace such earmarked securities without prior written instruction from the SEC; and provided, finally, that the Commission shall determine the terms of the government securities eligible for such purpose. The security for the faithful performance of Administrator functions shall be in addition to and shall be treated separately from the capital, surplus, and undivided profits of the Administrator.

The Commission shall determine on a quarterly basis the sufficiency of the security deposit based on the fair market value of the administered assets for the quarter. Any deficiency of security deposit must be replenished within one (1) week from the end of the quarter. Failure to maintain sufficient security deposit after such period shall be subject to appropriate sanctions.

Section 7. Grounds for Suspension or Revocation of Qualification/Accreditation of Administrator and Investment Manager

The accreditation of a PERA Administrator or an Investment Manager shall cease to exist in the following circumstances:

1. If, after due notice and hearing, the Commission determines that the applicant has committed any of the grounds provided under Rule 4.D of the PERA IRR; or
2. In case of the withdrawal/revocation of the applicant's primary and/or secondary license/registration.

Section 8. Penalty

The Commission shall impose applicable sanctions provided under the PERA Act and its implementing rules and regulations, the Securities Regulation Code (SRC) and its implementing rules and regulation (SRC-IRR), and other relevant rules and regulations, in the event of any violation of this circular.

Section 9. Reportorial Requirements

Any entity qualified/accredited by the Commission to be a PERA Administrator or a PERA Investment Manager shall comply with the reportorial requirements prescribed under the SRC-IRR, and other applicable laws and issuances.

Section 10. Fees
